

Audiology Screening

- Baseline and Annual Testing available by CAOCH certified technicians .
- Testing should be performed in a certified hearing booth or onsite with a certified portable equipment.
  - For onsite audio screening a quiet room meeting OSHA background noise standards is required
- All Equipment should be inspected and maintained yearly through licensed contractor

Adding Audiology screenings provides a solid base line for future evaluation needs or hearing loss concerns